Full Property Description :

La Nava is composed of a series of "Wow" factors, from the moment when you arrive and are greeted by the staff, to its exclusivity, privacy, and beauty, it combines the warmth and comforts of home with the professionalism of a five-star hotel. Your every desire is catered to before you even realise you are in need, as the discrete staff is always ready to please. The house exudes an understated, elegant charm throughout its well thought-out design, within a backdrop of untouched nature.

Sitting upon its plateau, the house is an imposing presence over the surrounding landscape. The grounds of the estate extend for a number of acres of nature in its purest state, composed of ancient olive grove, deep valleys, steep ravines, and lush vegetation.

La Nava is an ideal estate for corporate meetings, special events, or large celebrations.

Surrounded by thousands of hectares of natural Spanish landscapes, olive trees and vineyards, La Nava del Barranco villa has 14 large ensuite rooms and offers magnificent infinite views of the countryside. Spend your vacation surrounded by breathtaking natural beauty, with stunning views of lakes, mountains, valleys, and green forests. The location is superb right on the top of a hill. It's the perfect place to escape from the chaos of everyday life, where you can disconnect and feel at one with the world around you: everything you could ever need for an all-inclusive stay, with absolutely unbeatable in-house service.

The house has 14 double, ensuite rooms. Carefully decorated with high combining materials and styles to create a unique experience. All rooms are fully equipped with the latest technology to ensure maximum comfort and well-being.

The two lounges available in the house allow guests to choose the most appropriate space depending on their mood. The main lounge has a large south-facing terrace, perfect for enjoying the stunning sunsets. The side lounge is ideal for small groups looking for privacy and discretion.

The house offers diverse dining rooms where you can enjoy exquisite Spanish gastronomy. The main dining room seats 30 people and has a fireplace and a large window where you can appreciate wonderful views. There is a beautiful dining space on the terrace and an impressive dining area in the middle of the countryside, for those seeking unique experiences.

Our cuisine is a culinary experience. Our chef and their team create unique menus, using only the best ingredients from the best suppliers in the market.

This Villa offers many facilities to use inside and fun activities to do outdoors. In the house you can watch movies in the cinema room, treat yourself in the saunas and waters of the Spa, experience traditional Spanish cuisine from the house chef in the elegant dining room, read books and relax in the library room with the fireplace on, and enjoy sunsets in the late afternoon and the cleanest sky with stars at night time from the gorgeous lounges & porches.

What makes this Villa really unique are the outdoors activities inside the house estate: Spot deer, rams, rabbits, wild boars, eagles, thousands of birds and even some endangered species on a 4x4 photo safari. Go on a horseback adventure through the Castilian countryside... or see it from above on a thrilling hot balloon ride. Anything you can imagine is possible, from a private bullfight to an intimate flamenco show and concert. Villa Castilla has an in-house team of experts for each activity to make sure you can learn and appreciate each experience at its best.

The service and attention of a 6-star hotel with the warmth and privacy of feeling at home. Furthermore, if you like private jets, then you'll love La Nava del Barranco's private airstrip which is more than 2km long. La Nava del Barranco is for those that want something above and beyond a luxury hotel.
